DID NOT DELIVER MESSAGE TODAY

Huerta's Minister Asks That Further Time be Allowed.

UNITE IN THE REQUEST

Mexico Wants to Consider Reply Refusing Plans Submitted by Governor Lind.

Washington, Aug. 26.—President Wilson will not deliver his message to Congress on the Mexican situation until tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The change of plans is due to a joint request received from Former Governor John Lind and Senor Gamboa, minister of Foreign Affairs, asking further opportunity for the Mexican Government to consider the mediation proposals of the United States.

This is regarded as a preliminary step toward an acceptance of these proposals.

In explaining the postponement, Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, said:

"Last night about midnight, after the conference between the President and the Foreign Relations Committees of the two houses, a dispatch was received from Mexico City in which Mr. Lind united with Senor Gamboa in requesting the President to postpone his address to Congress until Wednesday, in order to afford the authorities at Mexico City opportunity for further consideration of the proposals of the United States, in view of certain supplementary suggestions by Mr. Lind. The President, has, of course, consented, and expects to address Congress at 1 p. m. Wednesday.

What the supplementary suggestion by Mr. Lind are could not be ascertained here. It is known, however, that the initial suggestions came not from Mr. Lind, but from the Huerta government. In no sense has the United States abandoned the essenials of its proposal.

These essentials, it became known today, on high authority, are as follows:

First, that there shall be a cessation of hostilities and a definite armistice .

Second, that there shall be early elections.

Third, that Huerta shall bind himself not to be a candidate in these elections.

Fourth, an agreement by both factions to abide by the result of these elections.

It was definitely learned that at no time has the United States insisted on the resignation of General Huerta as provisional president.

Secretary of War Lindley M. Garrisoln, and Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff, will visit the camp before the close of the maneuvers. The brigade, consisting of the Tenth, Eleventh and Fifteenth Regiments, is now drilling by regiments under the direction of Colonel Cunliff H. Murray, of the Twelfth, and Brigade maneuvers will be taken up shortly.

Hulfish, Miss Mary Harris, Miss Ellen Garlock, Miss Irene Harris, Mrs. N. L. Reed, C. E. Dare, C. D. Hubbard, Thomas A. Hulfish, Mr. Freeland, Herman Pohl, C. M. Sherwood, R. L. Payne, T. C. Smith, and F. L. Slaymaker. The game will be played on the Rosemont court.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

While working at his desk yesterday at Huelva, Spain, the American consular agent at Huelva, William J. Alcock, was stabbed in the back by a madman. Mr. Alcock's assailant was a Spaniard named Bejarano, who apparently is suffering from the delusion that Americans have stolen patents of an important invention belonging to him. The consular agent was severely wounded, but will recover. Bejarano was sent to jail.

Another chapter in a Breathitt feud was recorded Sunday when a posse from that country went over to Clay county, Ky., and shot to death Greenberry McIntosh, who was charged with the recent murder of Greenberry Coombs in Breathitt. The Breathitt officers found McIntosh at the home of his brother-in-law at Redbird Creek. McIntosh defied the posse, and was shot down. Mrs. Ed Callahan, widow of the noted former sheriff of Breathitt, who was killed in a feud war, and her brother, Leonard, are in jail, charged with complicity in the killing of Greenberry Coombs.

Wounded in the left heel by a stingray, whose sting is poisonous, John Swanson whipped out a sharp fish knife, slashed his heel to the bone, leaped overboard and swam a mile and a half to shore yesterday at Beach Haven, Atlantic City. He was found unconscious on the beach and carried to the office of Dr. Herbert Willis, who believes Swanson's heroic treatment and the cauterizing effects of the salt water will save the patient's life if he survives the effects of exhaustion and loss of blood.

The bodies of Carl W. Perry nad Miss Angie Spear, high school students, were found in a small boat floating in Penobscot Bay near Rockland, Me., yesterday. Both had been shot to death. Appearances seemed to indicate that Perry did the shooting. A revolver with three shells exploded was found in the boat. There was nothing to indicate whether the deaths were the result of a suicide pact. There were two wounds on the girl's body. The police believe that after Miss Spear had been killed Perry shot himself through the mouth. The two left home Sunday morning for a forenoon's outing in Perry's motorboat.

Enraged when she refused to kiss him good-by before he ended his life, Thomas Keen, last night shot and seriously wounded his wife, Mrs. Rita Keen, in front of her mother's home, in N. E. section of Philadelphia. He then held a squad of policemen at bay while he swallowed the contents of a bottle of poison. He was taken to a hospital, where, after a stomach pump had been used, he was discharged, but collapsed in his cell and died while being removed to another institution. The young couple have been separated for seven months and yesterday the husband had the papers in a divorce suit served on him. He sought out his wife and begged her to give him one last kiss good-by. When she had refused three times, he drew his revolver and shot her.

Oliver C. Adams, who lives near Rehoboth, Princess Anne County, Md., was placed in jail Sunday charged with the murder of Noah Young Saturday night. Young was 50 years old and lived near Carver's Store, about three miles from Rehoboth. It is alleged that Young and Wm. T. Adams stopped at the home of Oliver Adams about 8 o'clock Saturday evening and became engaged in an altercation with Adams, who ordered them to leave. Upon their refusal Oliver Adams is said to have got his gun and shot Young in the head, killing him instantly. It is alleged he struck W. T. Adams on the head with the gun barrel. Oliver Adams lives alone and has no family. Eight years ago he was committed to the insane asylum and after several months spent there was released upon habeas corpus proceedings.

Peter Kelly, a young motorman jumped from the Brooklyn bridge yesterday at its highest point and escaped with a few slight bruises. On his way down Kelly turned over half a dozen times and struck the East river almost flat on his back. He floated a short distance until he was rescued. Kelly refused to tell why he made the jump. The ambulance surgeon who in ten minutes pronounced him as sound as ever, said Kelly had been drinking.

SUBSTANCE OF THE MESSAGE

Feeling of Friendship, Not Hostility, is Displayed.

NO INTERFERENCE.

President Wilson Reads Message at Conference Held at The White House Last Night.

Washington, Aug. 26.—President Wilson read last night to the members of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, Republicans as well as Democats, the message on the Mexican situation which he was to have read in Congress today, but which he will not read until tomorrow.

It is a message of friendship, not hostility, and precedes a policy of absolute noninterference. It proclaims to the world the sympathetic feeling the United States government and American people have for their neighbors in the rebellion-torn republic south of the Rio Grande. It records the views of the United States on constitutional government, its unalterable opposition to governments set up by the irregular and arbitrary acts of ambitious individuals, and formally announces that the government of Victoriano Huerta shall not be recognized. The efforts of the United States to bring about a peaceful settlement of the difficulty through the epresentations made by John Lind, pecial envoy of President Wilson, are outlined, as well as the answer of the Huerta government.

The United States has proposed that a constitutional election be held and that Huerta should not be a candidate. To this suggestion through which the U. S. believes peace could be restored, Huerta has replied in the negative. Foreign governments generally since that rejection have been active in support of the American policy to persuade Huerta to yield.

The delivery of the message is an essential factor in the program of the American government before the world. It is not a preliminary to any drastic measures, however, it is merely the announcement of a policy which will be maintained for years, if necessary, until constitutional government shall be restablished in Mexico.

The effect of the message, it is hoped by administration officials, will be to convince the world of the sincere efforts of the United States to bring about peace and forestall pressure that might otherwise have been exerted by foreign governments for a sterner policy toward Mexico.

Having exhausted every avenue of influence on the Mexican authorities, the administration does not feel compelled to intervene by force of arms to establish its views. Every opportunity will be given to American citizens to withdraw from the danger zones and strict neutrality in shipments of arms will be observed.

The White House conference began at 8:30 o'clock. The President's private office looked like a schoolroom. Divans, davenports, sofas and chairs were arranged in equal rows in front of the Presdent's desk. There were accommodations for the 37 members of the two committees, but they did not all come, some being absent from the city. It was the largest conference that had been held at the executiv offices, however, since the present administration began. Secretary Bryan sat beside the President as the latter read his message.

Those present from the Senate committee were Senators Bacon (chairman), Stone; Clark, of Arkansas; Shively, O'Gorman, Williams, Swanson, Pomerene, McCumber, Lodge; Smith, of Arizona, and Borah, of Idaho. From the House committee there were Representatives Flood, of Virginia, (chairman); Cline, of Indiana; Linthicum, of Maryland; Difenderfer, of Pennsylvania; Stedman, of North Carolina; Harrison, of Mississippi; Walker, of Georgia; Cooper, of Wisconsin, and Temple of Pennsylvania.

HUERTA HAS AT LAST WEAKENED.

At almost the very moment that President Wilson was preparing today to go to the Capitol and read his message to Congress signalizing the end of all negotiations with the Mexican government, word came from Mexico City asking that the reading of the message be deferred. Huerta wants more time to consider the mediation proposals of the United States.

There is to be no weakening at this end. All concessions, and they would be important ones, must come from Huerta himself, who twenty-four hours ago was flaunting to the world his defiance of the United States, and His Rejection of our efforts to bring about peace..

In consequence of the request for delay, President Wilson will defer the reading of his message until 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. If there is a complete reconsideration on the part of the Mexican ruler, the message may never be read.

Repairs to the schooner Maine, Capt. Jones, one of the largest vessels claiming this city as her home port, have been completed at a Baltimore shipyard and the vessel is now ready to brave winter trips. While on the drydock the hull of gales on the Chesapeake and on coastwise the Maine was repaired and she was calked and painted. J. H. Carter & Co., of this city is her managing owner.

A SOUTHERN PARTY.

Pleasant Gathering in Colonial Home At Warrenton.

The old colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skinker, in Warrenton, on Tuesday night, was the scene of a beautiful "Virginia party", in honor of Mrs. Juliet Keith, of Richmond.

There were teet-a-tete couples in the large, romantic grounds, under the old trees, enchantingly illuminated by innumerable Chinese lanterns.

The interesting old house was brilliant with the lights of candles on high mantels and over doorways, amid vines of sunflowers, reflected in antebellum mirrors—white lilies in old cut glass vases and a big blue bowl, on an old rosewood etafere and table, that I remembered, attracted me to linger near and dream of old Richmond and dear by-gone days.

The invited guests included quite a number of beautiful women and distinguished men—fair young girls and beaux, from distant points in Virginia and elsewhere.

Refreshments were served, and everyone enjoyed some of Mr.Skinker's fine old punch from a big ancestral bowl 200 years old. All night the roses heard the dancers dancing in tune "to the old time music of the 'fiddle and the bow," played by colored folk, the real musicians of the South.

ALEXANDRIANS ON ACCREDITED LIST

Important Announcement to Patrons of Alexandria Schools.

MEANS MUCH TO CITY.

Graduates to be Admitted to University Without Examination or Conditions.

One of the most important announcements of the patrons of Alexandria public schools was made today when the information was given out that the Alexandria high school had been placed on the accredited lists of Virginia schools whose graduates are admitted to the University of Virginia and other colleges of the state without examinations and without conditions. As other principal universities throughout the country follow the lead of the University of Virginia this action will mean that graduates of the Alexandria High School will be admitted to all of them under the same conditions.

W. L. Phillips son of Oscar Phillips a former member of the school board, will be the first graduate of the high school to enter the University of Virginia without examination. He received a letter yesterday from Prof. Charles T. Maphis, for Dean J. M. Page, advising that his certificate had been accepted. Mr. Phillips, who was a graduate member of the class of 1913, stood second in his class.

PLANS FOR REMODELING.

Six Thousand Dollars to be Expended in Repairs to Armory Hall.

Plans are being prepared to be ready for bidders in two weeks for the remodeling of Armory Hall, which it is proposed to remodel at a cost of less than $6,000, the greater portion of which expense will be borne by the city.

It is the intention to secure bids just as soon as the plans have been drawn and to let the contract for the work soon after, as it is hoped to have all the construction work finished before cold weather.

Among the improvements and additions to the Armory provided for in the plans under consideration will be the following: A kitchen for use during banquets, new cloak room for use during gatherings, dances and conventions, a ladies' retiring room, which will be nicely fitted up, men's shower bath room, gymanisum room, two bowling alleys will be provided, arranged so that they will be placed beneath the present drill floor, part of the floor being made removable when bowling is engaged in, and when replaced for drilling will be entirely hidden from view and will not interfere with the space needed for holding drills.

There will also be enlarged locker space for the men's use and an enlarged quartermaster's store room. A complete heating plant is also to be installed to make the hall comfortable during cold weather. The present basket ball court will be improved to afford greater opportunity for engaging in this sport.

The interior and exterior of the hall is to be painted and a new roof placed on the building.

At last night's meeting several members of the Light Infantry company were tried by a summary court at the Armory, on charges of failing to attend drills as required. Nominal fines were imposed upon those found guilty.

The warrant was issued by United States Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett, and the prisoner brought before him today by deputy United States Marshall Wm. S. Schoeni. The charges against the prisoner were escaping from Occoquan and aiding and advising George Johnson, another prisoner, how to make his escape. JEROME NEMESIS OF HARRY THAW

Says "Thaw is Headed Back to Matteawan Asylum."

PRISONER SARCASTIC.

Defense Lawyers Split Over Course of Action—Fugitive Demands That Plans be Reversed.

Sherbrooke, Quebec, Aug. 26.—That William Travers Jerome is the nemesis of Harry K. Thaw was demonstrated today more clearly than any time since the murder of Stanford White. Yesterday the high-priced camp of attorneys for the Pittsburgh millionaire was a unit in its defense plans. In the jail Thaw was confident and sarcastic. Today the defense is divided. Thaw, extremely nervous, and much excited, paces back and forth in his cell, issuing orders to everyone who will listen. What the outcome will be, no one can forecast. And all because Jerome, reaching here, made the following statement:

"Harry K. Thaw is headed straight back to Matteawan. He may fight here. He may elect to struggle in Vermont. But the end will be the same. And what difference does a few months make one way or the other?"

The moment Thaw heard this he sent for his lawyers and demanded they reverse themselves and keep him in Canada. In an outburst of rage he shouted, "And what his true colors revealed he must fight every step of the way."

"Jerome is at last the paid attorney for the Broadway 'chicken fanciers,'" he shouted. "And with his true colors revealed he must fight every step of the way."

The lawyers consulted again. They spent most of last night going over the plans. The majority were still insistent that it was best to let Thaw go to Vermont. White and Shurtliffe, who were the original attorneys, changed their front. They urged a bold move which they said would afford delay. They wanted a writ of discontinuance of the habeas corpus proceedings filed immediately. This would have Thaw committed under the original committment and they declared he would have to stay there until the regular October term of court. In the meantime something might turn up.

But the other lawyers held that if such action were taken the minister of justice at Ottawa would interfere. His power is absolute. And with the attention of the world on Canada, it was not believed that a technical committment would be permitted to be used as an excuse for the law's delays. However, they were considering this plan and also a proposition that an agreement be reached whereby Thaw be ordered deported to New York, via Montreal, and then a stay of execution granted permitting an appeal, which would finally go to the privy council in London.

The basis of the appeal would be discrimination. The Canadian immigration law gives only Canadians the right to appeal from exclusion or deportation orders. The treaty between Great Britain and the United States grants citizens of one country equal rights in the other. The Thaw lawyers were considering whether this did not make the section refusing the opportunity to appeal to Americans unconstitutional.

Death of Mrs. Chichester.

Mrs. Sarah Ellen, widow of Major John H. Chichester, died at McLean, Fairfax county, yesterday. The funeral took pace at old Falls Church today.

SHOT AT THE SEAL CLERK

Attempt to Rob Car at Potomac Railroad Yard--Lantern Struck By Bullet

An attempt was made to rob a freight car in the Potomac yards last night, during which an unknown man fired five shots from a revolver at J. E. Adams, who is employed as a seal clerk at that point. Adams was at work inspecting the seals of cars when he found one of the cars open. A man was on the inside, and when the railway eemploye started to enter the car another man on the outside fired at him.

None of the shots took effect, but Adams' lantern was struck by a bullet. the sealer was unarmed and ran. The would-be robbers escaped.

The special officers of railroads centering at and near this city have experienced considerable trouble of late from depot and yard prowlers. The special officers arrest parties every week of trespassing. Most of the cases come before the authorities of Alexandria and Fairfax counties.

Women's New Fall Suits

It is difficult indeed to point out the most salient features of the new styles in Women's Fall Suits, but there are many, all of which are decidedly interesting and attractive.

Attention is called to nine new styles in Smart Fall Suits which we have just placed on display. They are fashioned of Bengaline, Serges and Cheviots, in black, navy, taupe, and hairline stripes.

Every model exhibited to a marked degree the absence of any well defined figure lines; the coats are decidedly cutaway, accentuating the yielding grace of the figure; the cutaway effect is usually larger at the top that at the bottom, being similar in design to a man's full dress coat; both plain and draped skirts are in evidence;also the slashed effects. They are all handsomely plain, some are slightly trimmed with buttons.

This display provides an accurate portrayal of the latest suit modes.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

Seventeen-year-old Youth Arrested in Charlottesville.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 25.—Charges of housbreaking, robbery are lodged against D. J. Mumby, a 17-year-old Richmond boy who was brought back from Charlottesville yesterday by Detective Krengel. Mumby is charged with the robbery of the dental establishment of Dr. H. V. Desportes, and the home of A. C. Smith, both of which are at 625 East Main street, and with the forgery of a check for $20 on Mr. Smith.

In the police court yesterday morning W. H. Collins, who had been charged with the forgery of the Smith check for $20, was discharged. It was developed that the check was presented Collins by Mumby, who unwittingly endorsed it and cashed it for Mumby, turning over the money to him.

Mumby, it is said, has made a clean breast of the entire affair. The robbery of Dr. Desportes' office, when dental instruments and gold fillings were stolen, occured July 25th. These articles have been recovered by Detective Krengel. The home of Mr. Smith was entered and robbed about ten days ago.

RACE WITH DEATH.

Stricken With Appendicitis in Matthews, Young Woman is Rushed to Richmond Hospital.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 26.—Rushed to Richmond at double-quick time from Matthews county, where she had been visiting relatives, Miss Josie Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Richardson, of 1807 Grave Avenue, underwent an operation early yesterday for acute appendicitis at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, and is now reported to be resting comfortably, with every prospect of recovery.

Taken suddenly ill Saturday at the home of Captain William Miles, the symptoms of Miss Richardson became so alarmnig that her physician, Dr. Vaiden, determined to get her to Richmond as soon as possible so that she might go under the knife.

Accordingly next morning she was placed aboard the steamer Mobjack and taken to Old Point, arriving there at 9:30 o'clock Sunday night.

Meanwhile the excursion train had been asked to await the arrival of the boat.

At Newport News another engine was put on to hasten the trip to this city, which was made in record time, the train reaching here a few minutes after 11 p. m.

At the Main street station Miss Richardson was placed in an ambulance and hurried to the hospital. There surgeons quickly verified the diagnosis of the Matthews physician and began preparations for the operation.

At 1:30 a. m., the patient was placed on the operating table, and in a few moments the appendix was removed. It was found in a highly inflamed condition.

At Old Point Miss Richardson was joined by her parents who were at Ocean View when the news of her extreme illness reached them.

He was brought back and placed at work in the quarry. A short time later a car ran over his foot and it was badly mashed.

Owens was sent to the roads for eloping with another man's wife.

POLICEMEN DISMISSED.

Entered Norfolk Resort Wearing Uniforms.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 26.—Mayor W. R. Mayo, after a hearing yesterday dismissed from the police force Patrolman C. D. Sykes and A. M. Allen, upon the charge against each of entering the house No. 200 Cumberland street in their uniforms at night. The dismissed officers appealed to the Board of Control. Attorney J. A. Arnold appeared for them at the hearing. The mayor sent each of the defendants the following letter:

"After a full investigation of the charge preferred against you by Sergeant G. L. Marshall, of conduct unbecoming an officer, wherein you visited a house of ill-fame, at 1.20 a. m., August 16, I have to state to you that this charge has been fully sustained by the positive evidence of Sergeant Marshall and further sustained by the evidence of your own witness, one Dennis.

"There is no doubt in my mind that you were in the house of ill-fame; that you must have known it to be a house of ill-fame and that you were in there in your full uniform as a policeman, wherein you not only violated the rules and regulations of the police department, but you dragged the department, whose uniform you wore, into the same degredation to which you subjected yourself; and as it is one of the prime duties of the police department to suppress crime, lawlessness, and vice, you proved absolute treachery to that department when as a policeman, in full uniform, you entered a place of vice.

"And so, in the performance of my duty as mayor, to the city and to the police department, whose good name should be uppermost in the minds of every membeh of the said department, I remove you from the service of the city as a member of this department. This removal to take effect from this date."

MAD DOG EXCITEMENT.

Several Persons Bitten by Canine in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 26.—Dog days, which usually arrive at a sultry period of the summer between the early part of July and September, brought great excitement to Ginter Park Sunday, when it became known that several persons of that suburb had been bitten by a rabid canine and are now under the Pasteur treatment here.

The canine madness would no doubt have spread to other suburbs and probably to the city if it had not been for the precautions taken by the Ginter Park authorities, who immediately ordered that all dogs be muzzled or killed.

An officer went to every home in Ginter Park and notified the owners of dogs to muzzle their canines at once or tie them so that no other persons would run the risk of being bitten. As many as twenty-five dogs were seen on one corner in Ginter Park Saturday night.

Just how many mad dogs there are in Henrico county at the present is not known, but it is certain that every precaution will be taken to prevent the spread of rabies, as sufficient warning has been given to keep many dogs from running at large until the prevalence of the disease has been checked or the canines suffering from hydrophobia have been killed.

ATTACKED BY DOCTOR.

Nurses Keep Him From Throwing Woman Out of Window.

Richmond, Aug. 26.—Charged with feloniously assaulting Harriett Rollins in attempting to eject her from the Richmond hospital, conducted by Dr. Milo Jones, Dr. William Hughes, was arrested last night and taken to the Second Police station, where bail was given for his appearance in Police court this morning. All are colored.

According to the story told by Harriett Rollins, who had gone there to have a wound in her left elbow dressed by Ambulance Surgeon Cofer, the attack upon her by Dr. Hughes was a savage one, and he was frustrated in his attempt to throw her from a second-story window only by the combined resistance of herself, her sister, Sarah Dangerfield, who had accompanied her to the hospital, and three nurses.

She had gone to the institution to see her daughter, Mary Jane Rollins, who died Sunday night. It was while in the room with her dying daugther that Dr. Hughes excepted to her presence and ordered her out. She protested. Hughes became angry and dragged her from the room and through the hall to a window from which, she alleges, he tried to throw her.

ALEXANDRIA BOYS ON ACCREDITED LIST.

The announcement on the first page of the Gazette to the effect that in future graduates of the public schools in Alexandria will be admitted to the University of Virginia without examination or conditions will be read with satisfaction not only by students, who are laboring assidiously for a higher education, but by the friends of the public schools also.

Under these conditions Alexandria students whose aim is to reach the top in the course of education are given a decided stimulus when they realize that after having passed out of the higher grades in our public school system certificates to that effect are all the credentials necessary to admission into Virginia's great university. There was a time, however, when students of this city were handicapped in their ambition, as such were not on the accredited list of the University, and regrets that such was a fact have often been heard.

It has never been apparent why such a chasm ever existed between graduates of the public schools and the University of Virginia,and all will rejoice that the barrier has been removed.

Not every boy who passes through the public schools of any city is fired with the ambition to enter the University. Some, however, are, and such as have labored to fit themselves for a university course should be encouraged in their commendable course.

There are some sad cases in history where youths, through no fault of their own, have been frowned upon by universities. Their genius was not recognized, and they were compelled to retire to garrets and crusts while thirsting for knowledge. Dr. Samuel Johnson was a victim of such thoughtlessness upon the part of institutions of learning in his day. He was refused a degree by a college which later in his life would have been proud to own him as an offspring of the institution. It will be remembered when he arrived at his zenith in the world of letters the same institution offered him a degree. The great but brusque man returned it with his thanks, saying that the faculty reminded him of men who stand on a river's bank watching the struggles of a man in the water endeavoring to reach land. They make no attempt to aid in his rescue, but when he manages to reach shore without their help, they rush to lead him up the bank.

There may be some embryonic great men of letters among Virginia boys, and our higher institutions of learning might in future be proud to own them.

On the gates of the City of Edinburgh stand these words: "Nisi Dominus Frustra"—Unless the Lord be with you your efforts are in vain." An impecunious student in that city who had long been ignored and impeded in his course of study by the arrogance of those enjoying opulence and station in life, upon being asked to translate these Latin words gave the following meaning: "Unless you are a Lord, you can do nothing here."

We are glad that such conditions do not surround the temple of learning of Thomas Jefferson.

PRESIDENT WILSON DELAYS MESSAGE.

The message on Mexico which has been so anxiously looked for by the American people was again delayed by President Wilon today who decided to wait until tomorrow for some further advices from the Mexican government on the proosition to arrange a peaceful solution of the question. A number of Alexandrians who journeyed to the capital today to hear the president deliver his message were disappointed.

A dismal outlook of the situation in reference to the invasion of Mexico is made by the War Department today.

General W. W. Wotherspoon, assistant chief of staff, declares that the standing army should be more than doubled. The present strength of each company, he says, is sixty-five, the war strength is 150 men.

"It is impossible to put eighty-five recruits into a company of sixty-five men and call that company a trained company, General Wotherspoon asserts. He says there should be a standing army of 130,000 men, instead of the 60,000 men at present, with provision for a reserve which could in war time swell this number to 250,000.

Secretary of War Garrison has outlined the plan of the War Department of reducing the minimum enlistment period from three years to one year in order to obtain a large enlistment. The Secretary believes that this shorter period of enlistment will give a greater enlisted strength without calling on Congress for legislative action.

Congressman Julius Kahn, of California, ranking Republican member of the House Committee on Military Affairs, favors taking any legislative steps necessary to increase the country's war strength.

"The almost criminal negligence of Congress in alowing the military and naval establishments to deteriorate," he declared, "has been the cause of the death of thousands of our young men whenever we have been invaded by a foreign foe."

There is every likehlhood that the President and the secretary will be present during the week of October 6th.

At that time the immense crowd expected at the fair will have the opportunity of shaking hands with the President, and the President will have the oportunity of seeing what the resources of Virginia, his native state, are.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorks, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriola, Pa., that is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. It is one of the most successful preparations that has been discovered. Thousands have testified to its value. For sale by all dealers.

NO FEELING AGAINST NEGRO.

Woman Assaulted at Indian Head Said to be of Negro Extraction.

La Plata, Md., August 26.—On a charge of common assault, William Thomas, colored, who on Saturday night, assaulted the wife of a farmer at Indian Head, was arraigned before Magistrate Harry Dement, at that place yesterday afternoon and was released on $500 bail for the action of the grand jury of Charles county. A large crowd surrounded the office of the magistrate, but there was no disposition to molest the prisoner. The negro admitted that he had assaulted the woman, and it was brought out at the hearing that although her husband is a white man, she is of negro extraction. Reports from Indian Head, which were published yesterday says there was a near-lynching here, and that after a man hunt of almost 24 hours Thomas was captured and lodged in jail here, caused quite a bit of excitement. The negro had not been arrested at all, and many inquiries were made as to his whereabouts by those in authority.

Deputy Sheriff Henry A. Penn, of Charles county, went to Indian Head yesterday morning when he read the reports in the morning newspapers which said that Thomas was lodged in the La Plata jail. It was through his efforts that the negro was brought to trial. On his return here he said he found a spirit of indifference at Indian Head as to disclosing of the case and that he had heard it rumored that Boswell had been bribed not to appear against the man who had attempted such an assault upon his wife and later upon himself.

Thomas lives in the Pomonkey neighborhood where there is a large negro population, and the sentiment there is mostly in his favor, athough there are some in other parts of the country surrounding Indian Head who wold have handled him roughly. They did not believe that the farmer's wife was of negro extraction.

When Sheriff Penn arrived at Indian Head he was told that Boswell had refused to prosecute Thomas and that the case would be dropped. He replied that it was a state case and if Boswell and his wife did not appear against the negro whom he had arrested, he would lock them up. The preliminary hearing was then had. The negro's father, Hunter Thomas, is his bondsman.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The American ambassador to the Court of St. James, Walter Hines Page, yesterday secured an official home for three years by taking on lease No. 6 Grosvenor Square, London, after inspecting many houses, most of which were offered at prohibitive prices. The residence is a plain but substantial dwelling in the best section of London. Three doors away is the embassy recently purchased by the Japanese government, while the Italian embassy and the Chilean legation are in the same square. The Dukes of Portland, Manchester and Somerset and various townspeople live in Grosvenor Square.

New York City is to have 500 more policemen. Police Commissioner Waldo said yesterday that provision had been made for the added expense and that he would start appointing the new men at once. The addition will raise the police force to 10,800.

FRANK DECLARED GUILTY.

Slayer of Mary Phagan Will be Hanged for Crime.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 26.—Leo M. Frank was found guilty late yesterday of the murder last April of 14-year old Mary Phagan, an employe at the local National Pencil Company factory, of which Frank was superintendent.

All spectators had been excluded from the court room when the jury reported, but a large crowd assembled outside the courthouse received the news with noisy demonstrations. Frank, who by agreement of counsel had been permitted to remain in his cell in the county jail, was informed of the jury's findings an hour later, and he heard his fate unmoved, although his wife, who was with him, collapsed.

Under the verdict, which contained no recommendation for mercy, Frank will be sentenced to die on the gallows. The Georgia law provides that the jury may recommend mercy in capital cases, and when it so recommends the only sentence that can be imposed is life imprisonment. When the jury fails to recommend mercy the judge has no option save to pass the death sentence. The jury today considered the question of a recommendation to mercy, but only one man favored it at the outset, and he went over to the majority.

Frank asserted last night, to friends who visited him in his cell: 'I am as innocent now as I was a year ago." His appearance and general demeanor remained as impassive as throughout the trial.

Late in the trial the defendant made a statement denying all knowledge of the crime.

CUT HIS WIFE'S THROAT.

Murderous Act by a Baltimorean Who Had Separated From His Wife.

Baltimore, Aug. 26.—Arising from the table at which he had eaten supper with his wife and 5-year-old son, Charles Sies, 33 years old, 2715 Atkinson avenue, drew a large knife from his pocket, grasped his wife, Edith, around the waist and drew the weapon across her throat.

The cutting occurred about 7 o'clock last evening in the rear room of the home of John T. Justice, 424 West Twenty-fifth street, where Mrs. Sies had been living since her separation from her husband two months ago.

Sies left the house a short while after the cutting and went to his Atkinson home, where, within 10 minutes he was placed under arrest.

Mrs. Sies will probably recover.

Since his separation from his wife two months ago Sies has been living with his brother, Daniel T. Sies, at the Atkinson avenue address. He had frequently visited his wife and children at the home of Mr. Justice, however, and, according to Mr. Justice, these visits were frequently the occasions of quarrels.

The woman after the murderous attack broke away from the husband, who seemed dazed by his own act, and ran out into the yard, bleeding profusely. Her throat had been cut practically from ear to ear.

It is said that since their marriage Sies and his wife have been separated four times.

Unexpected by the large assemblage at the funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Moffatt, wife of Rev. Dr. J. E. Moffatt, at the First Presbyterian church at Cumberland, Md., yesterday afternoon was the funeral service, delivered by Dr. Moffatt himself. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. David M. Skilling, of Webster Grove, near St. Louis, and when Dr. Moffitt arose beside the coffin to speak the assemblage was startled. Dr. Moffatt talked for about 15 minutes paying a beautiful tribute to his wife. Dr. Moffett has been pastor of the church for 35 years.

Thousands of residents of the Italian quarter in the north side of Chicago last Sunday night flocked to the home of the "King "Little Hell," for the wedding of his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Kaplan. They showered her with presents to the value of $40,000 and drank wine which cost their host $2,500. Frank Kaplan, father of the bride, who is regarded by the Italians as their official leader, gave a $10,000 check. He started in the district 25 years ago as junk dealer.

Good Reason for His Enthusiasm.

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea, and other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially is this the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Try it when in need of such a remedy. It never fails. Sold by all druggists.

Pastor With Blackeye.

New York, Aug. 26.—When the Rev. Dr. L. G. Broughton, of London, entered the pulpit of Madison Avenue Reformed Church yesterday morning there was a buzz of excited comment. Something had attracted all eyes. That something was not his black alpaca coat or comfortably low cut collar. It was his right eye. It was smaller and around it was a dark circle.

Aware that all eyes were focused upon that black and blue circle, the Rev. Dr. Broughton before beginning his sermon, said:

"Lest my hearers sympathize with me too freely, I will explain. I have a black eye. It is a sore eye, but I promise you I did not get it the way you think. You see, I was playing tennis and the ball—well, I guess that explains."

Yesterday was the coldest day in Cleveland, Ohio, of the present summer. The lowest temperature was 52. There were light frosts early in the morning in the valleys about Cleveland.
